

FORUM ASIA

Opening Doors to the Asian American Community

Magazine

Vol. 5 No.5

MAY 2007

THE CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR'S MISLEADING HEALTH CARE REFORM

Ryul Kim and Dr. Steven Chu.

1st Community Law School.

OC KABA prepares for 2nd Annual Community Law School

Presented by the Orange County
Korean American Bar Association (OC KABA)

IRVINE, CA (March 12, 2007) - With the success of last year's 1st Annual Community Law School, OC KABA is now underway, planning for 2007's Community Law School to be held on April 28, 2007 at Whittier Law School, Costa Mesa, CA from 10 am - 3 pm.

The Community Law School is endorsed by the California State Bar and the Legal Aid Society of Orange County. This year's special guests will include local judges and Irvine City Councilman, Sukhee Kang. This event is FREE and is open to all attendees, specifically catering to the largest Asian American population in Orange County - Korean Americans.

The Community Law School was established to educate the Korean American community regarding legal issues that affect their daily lives. This event will consist of seminars throughout the day, Asian Woman Performs at Los Angeles Women's Theatre Festival - Lan Tran performed a theatre piece, "Tales From The Lockpicking Child" about an Asian woman who shares a family secret revealed when, as a child, she picked locks in her home, at the Los Angeles Women's Theatre Festival last March 24 at at Highways Performance Center in Santa Monica.

broken into 30-60 minute sessions covering topics such as: Immigration, Family Law, Business Law, Employment Law, Real Estate Law and more.

For more information on the 2nd Annual Community Law School or OC KABA, please contact Min Chai at (949) 788-8900 or visit www.ockaba.com

About OC KABA

The Orange County Korean American Bar Association (OC KABA) was established in November of 2005 and is endorsed by the California State Bar Association. OC KABA was established to promote networking among minority attorneys, provide more effective legal counsel to the local Orange County community, to serve the Korean-American community's legal needs with pro bono services, to promote the appointment of Korean judges, and to assist law students making the transitions into full time law practice. Please visit www.ockaba.com for more information.